

The Intellectual Marketplace Of Ideas

DIVERSITY @ BLOG

The WCCC Diversity Committee is now offering of the Westmoreland County Community College (WCCC) Diversity Blog.

The sessions will have monthly topics. This forum provides those of us at the College with an additional chance to interact with each other, share ideas, discuss issues, debate, and better understand the various topics related to diversity. As the College continues to grow and expand, over 7,000 students, hundreds of faculty and staff, education centers throughout Westmoreland County, as well as centers in Indiana, Greene, and Fayette Counties, these blog topics will allow to create a feeling that we truly are a "community" of learners.

Blog Topic Schedule

November: Religious Diversity

December: Racial Profiling

JANUARY: DISABILITY ISSUES

February: Black History

March: Women's issues

April: GLBT

To Access The Blog:

1. Go to CampusConnections (my.wccc.edu)
2. Click on WCCC Info Tab
3. On the Left Side, in the "Around Campus" box, Click on Blogs