

Monday November 23, 2009

Visiting Fulbright Scholar Lecture

11:00 am in the Founders Hall Student Center
Open To All Students, Faculty & Staff

In March 2009, our guest was awarded a Scholar Rescue Fund Fellowship and joined Chatham University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. On campus he is playing a major role in Chatham University's "Global Focus Year of Africa."

He teaches modules in international studies about African geopolitics, domestic violence and the relationship between culture and HIV/AIDS prevalence. He has assisted in the organization of Chatham's "Sounds of Africa" symposium, bringing together world-class African art and music scholars to the university.

He will be discussing his life and studies in Zimbabwe, his journey to safety in the United States and the importance of Social Justice.

The Fulbright Program, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, is designed to "increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries." The Fulbright Program has provided more than 294,000 participants—chosen for their academic merit and leadership potential—with the opportunity to study, teach and conduct research, exchange ideas and contribute to finding solutions to shared international concerns.

*Guest Lecturer is a Rescued Fulbright Scholar; Identifying information has been purposely left off this promotional material.
This event is sponsored by the Cultural Programming Committee of WCCC